

Jasmine Herring

Jasmine Herring is a passionate educator and emerging ministry leader dedicated to impacting lives both inside and outside the classroom. Originally from Brooklyn, NY, Jasmine relocated to Albany, NY where she attended The College of Saint Rose, receiving her dual Bachelors Degree in Childhood Education with a concentration in English studies. She also received her NYS TEACH certification for Elementary Education and Special Education. Now residing in Albany, NY, Jasmine serves as a third-grade teacher and instructional coach. Her commitment to excellence in education is matched by her heart for spiritual growth and community empowerment.

Jasmine has faithfully served in ministry since her youth, using her gifts to usher others into the presence of God. She is currently a participant in Provoking Sessions, the ministerial training and development program at Rhema Revealed Ministries, where she is being equipped to walk confidently in her calling as a preacher and teacher of God's word.

Known for her assertiveness, wisdom, and authenticity, Jasmine believes that true ministry happens in everyday encounters. Whether she's leading a classroom or church, her mission remains the same: to provoke purpose, healing, and transformation through the power of God's love.

